

LINDA THORNTON SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

ILEA Live Scholarship

August 16-18, 2018

ILEA Dallas is proud as a result of the Chapter's fundraising efforts to offer TWO Education Scholarships to this year's ILEA Live conference in Denver, Colorado. The process is simple:

Complete the scholarship application that follows and send it to ILEA Dallas by June 11, 2018 to Abby Alderman, VP of Membership, at aalderman@nashersculpturecenter.org.

Winners will be announced at our June President's Reception on June 18, 2018.

The criteria are as follows:

- Be a member in good standing of ILEA Dallas for the 2018-2019 year
- Provide your ILEA membership number.
- Have been employed in the Live Events industry for a minimum of two (2) years and be viewed as an outstanding candidate to be a leader in the industry.
- Upon your return, prepare a two minute PowerPoint summary of your experience for presentation to the ILEA Dallas Chapter at an upcoming education meeting, written with the goal of encouraging other members to obtain their CSEP certification, attend future conferences and apply for scholarships.
- Candidate is responsible for their own travel expenses including airfare/transportation, lodging and meals.
 - Package includes some social functions. Those that are not included are the responsibility of the recipient.

Essay Requirements:

In order to better assess each submission, you will be asked to submit an essay stating why you should be awarded the scholarship. The essay should cover such topics as:

- How has Membership in ILEA furthered your career?
- What is your motivation for wanting to attend the upcoming conference?
- Have you brought guests with you to ILEA meetings or referred new members to the organization? What benefits do you suggest they might gain from their involvement?
- How are you involved in ILEA?
- Have you been a regular attendee at monthly meetings? Which three meetings have been most useful or informative for you?

I have read and agree the preceding criteria, point values, and supporting documents accurately represent my service to the ILEA Dallas Chapter.
